The Reporter

In this activity the class is segregated into teams of 8. Each team chooses a celebrity of their own who is currently getting trended and a popular media show host. Ensure that each team comes up with different celebrities and hosts. The celebrity can be a movie star, a business tycoon even a terrorist. Each team then asks at least one question to the celebrity, who will come on stage, through the team's corresponding media persons. The questions prepared must be interesting and insightful. The celebrity impersonator then answers the question completely adopting the points of view of the celebrity.

The questions asked should invoke lot of interest among the audience. At the end of this, the celebrity impersonator from each team ask questions to the celebrity on stage.

Happy learning!
